

The Institute for Learning and Teaching Tutoring Task Force

4. What services are provided at comparable institutions?

- I have heard of some universities offering an online tutoring program? Not sure how this works but I think the university pays for the tutoring services online and the student logs in to have an online tutoring session. Not sure I like the idea; I don't know much about the details of how the program works. (CG)
- I was a tutor at Idaho State University while finishing up my M.S. degree. The University had a tutoring center that was used to recruit tutors and advertise tutoring to students in need. The tutor and tutee were introduced by the University tutoring center and then made arrangements to meet. A time-card was initialed by both parties after they met. I needed the money and that's why the job appealed to me initially but after participating for a few months I understood that I was learning how to teach. Looking back on the experience I find that it was a valuable way to spend my time because I developed teaching strategies that I am still working to perfect now. (KS)
- Private ESL Tutor Listing (HL)
- Departmental "Resource rooms" with tutoring, textbooks, other tools students may need for specific courses (HL)
- Lists of "approved" tutors in different departments (HL)
- Online resources for current tutors (HL)
- "Request a Tutor" program—students can submit an email with the course they need a tutor in and someone matches them (HL)