

The Institute for Learning and Teaching Tutoring Task Force

8. What are the best options for implementing and funding the program?

- One option: consider funding tutors through financial aid. Students who sign up to be tutors might receive scholarships or merit workstudy funds.
- Another option: offer course credit towards their major or scholarship money. We would need a source of funding to have someone oversee the program(s).